24th December 1953] [Dr. U. Krishna Rao]

demonstrations outside will deflect us from doing our duty. If we are true to our salt, we must stand up to the agitation, face the music and see that right is on our side.

" So far as my advice to the managements is concerned, I will only repeat what our Prime Minister Sri Jawaharlal Nehru said in Calcutta. He pleaded for co-operation between the management and labour. He said that if our country was to prosper, if full production was to be reached and if the Five-Year Plan was to succeed, industries should be developed and that otherwise there was no salvation for our country.

" So far as labour is concerned, our Hon. Finance Minister has said the other day that labour has a big responsibility and labour leaders a bigger responsibility to see that at least till our country reached full production capacity they should not look into these minor points. I will give only one instance. In West Germany, which has rehabilitated her industries after the ravages of the war, there is no forty-hour week. There is only a fifty-six hour week. Every man puts his utmost effort to increase production. There is practically no working hours as such. If the workers start work at 8 o'clock, they stop only when the day's work is over. That is how within three years, West Germany has been able to conclude a deal worth several crores of rupees with India. I wish our country follows that lead."

(Mr. Speaker sounded the gong and the Hon. Minister resumed his seat.)
